Dear Sir/Madam,

Thank you for taking the time to review this letter. This letter is tailored to express my interest in this position and to describe my future goals as a web developer. I am relatively new to web development with a year working on personal projects and online coding boot camps, but I truly believe the specificity of learning the exact modern technologies of the field truly builds well rounded and efficient web developers.

Since the first time I witnessed my own creation pop up into a browser window, I have been obsessed with pushing myself to find new ways to create bigger and better applications. Whether that be with new frameworks or tools to stay up to date and better yet, ahead of this fast moving industry. Building modern, easy to use, and overall enjoyable experiences is my passion and I am confident that I would be an excellent addition to your organization. My resume and portfolio has also been attached detailing my skills and experience, along with the live sites to showcase them.

I can be reached anytime via my cell phone, 512-539-8969 or by email at joshcompanion@gmail.com.

Thank you again for your time and consideration. I look forward to speaking with you about this opportunity.

Sincerely,
Joshua Companion
